In Dedication — Miss Faith Marsh

The senior students of St. Luke's School of Nursing dedicate this yearbook to a favorite instructor and friend. She has personally affected a great many of our nursing careers and individual lives. Her understanding, compassion, sincere interest and excellent clinical manner have been an encouragement and pattern for all to follow.

It is with extreme pleasure that we the students of St. Luke's School of Nursing dedicate our yearbook to Miss Faith Marsh.

Miss Methodist Student Nurse

KATHARINE ARNOLD

The selection of Miss Methodist Student Nurse is made by the faculty and based on the outstanding academic record, leadership, character and service of a student of Methodist affiliation.

Miss Saint Luke's Student Nurse

Three contestants are chosen by the faculty to compete in the Miss Student Nurse contest. The student body chooses the winner on the basis of her scholastic ability, student activity record and her oral presentation of an essay "Within Our Grasp."

Graduation Day 1965

"When the psalm sings instead of the singer,
When the script preaches instead of the preacher,
When the pulpit descends and goes instead of the carver that carved the supporting desk,
When I can touch the body of books by night or by day, and when they touch my body back again,
When the university course convinces like a slumbering woman and child convince,
When warrantee deeds loaf in chairs opposite and are my friendly companions,
I intend to reach them my hand, and make as much of them as I do of men and women like you."

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!
